

Preparing for Teacher Managed Time

Use this guide as a checklist to help you get started

The classroom has a clear behavior management system set in place
Students are in current A2i group recommendations
Teacher has planned activities for each group
Students know how where to find materials, how to complete activities, and where completed work belongs
Students are rotating through group activities with minimal support
Students are becoming more independent and accountable of own work
Students know the plan set in place for what students are to do if they need help (Who do they turn to? Is there a specific person, or job? Consider rotation managers/technology managers)
Teacher has a plan for Teacher Managed small groups based on A2i minute and GE recommendations (What books/activities are appropriate for each group? You don't have to have a full lesson plan for each group. Start by planning for just one group in detail while using correctly leveled books for the other groups, and build on from there)
Teacher has planned differentiated activities for Child Managed based on A2i minute and GE recommendations
